^{*} Previous year according to Basel II

Business trend

Marked rise in half-year profit

Raiffeisen Group posted a significant rise in income, its operating income grew by CHF 20 million (+1.5%) to CHF 1,381 million. Since operating expenditure only grew moderately by 0.7%, gross profit reached a new record high at CHF 535 million (+2.7%). Half-year profit rose markedly by CHF 37 million (+11%) to CHF 369 million.

Raiffeisen Group boosted its income across the board. Due to sustained volume growth on the assets side and interest-rate adjustments for liabilities, margin erosion was curtailed and interest income was up CHF 12 million. The financial markets' recovery had a positive impact on commission income (+ CHF 8 million), especially in retail banking. The Group also saw small gains in the trading business.

Income is growing, costs are stable

It is an encouraging sign that costs have risen much less sharply than income. The increase has been comparatively moderate, both for personnel expenditure (+0.8%) and operating expenditure (+0.6%). This led to a corresponding increase in gross profit of CHF 14 million.

Solid growth in core business

Growth in the balance sheet business remained at a high level. Mortgage volumes rose 2.8% or CHF 3.8 billion, slightly outperforming the market in this respect. Lending-related risks remain at a low level. Value adjustments for default risks were reduced to CHF 273 million compared to the end of the year; this is equivalent to 0.185% of the credit volume.

Customer deposits witnessed encouraging growth of CHF 2.7 billion. The rise applied solely to savings deposits, while holdings of investments with a longer timeframe, such as medium-term notes and time deposits, fell further due to the continuing low interest rates. The Group's portfolio volume just about held up, despite inconsistent equity markets and declining bond markets.

Hybrid bond strengthens capital base

In April, Raiffeisen Switzerland successfully issued a subordinated hybrid bond in the amount of CHF 550 million, which was well received by the market. This enables the Group to exceed the capital adequacy requirements of Basel III set for the end of 2016 as early as the reporting date.

Notenstein expands new areas of business

Notenstein Private Bank Ltd is on a solid footing. It seeks to attain substantial growth in coming years, and is therefore investing specifically in its core areas: Swiss private clients and institutional clients. Assets under management at Notenstein Private Bank remained stable in the first half of 2013, while the still challenging market environment led to lower income and an increased cost/income ratio. In the spring Notenstein announced the expansion for the institutional clients area and in the meantime has recruited 50 new employees in this business area and in Asset Management. The partnership with Leonteq (formerly EFG Financial Products) started very successfully in the structured investment products area.

Strong half-year results

With a half-year result of CHF 369 million, Raiffeisen significantly exceeded the previous year's figure of CHF 332 million. In addition to the strong operating performance, another factor to the Group's advantage was that a write-down of CHF 22 million had to be applied to strategic investments in the previous year. Provided there are no major surprises in economic performance or in the financial markets in the second half of the year, Raiffeisen expects results to be better than last year.
